summer CLASSES

THS 540/ICS 540 Theology
of Mission (2 credits)

Dr Raymond Song

May 21–25

9.00 AM–

1.00 PM

This course is a study of the underlying principles and theological presuppositions of the global Christian mission. It provides theological foundations for the global mission of the church, and help students unify and integrate a wide range of theological themes in and around the issues of mission. Basic complex and contemporary issues that confront the missionary will be investigated.

BLS 540 Exposition of
Deuteronomy (2 credits)

BLS 640 Exegesis of
Deuteronomy (2 credits)

Dr Andrew Spurgeon

May 28–

June 1

9.00 AM–

1.00 PM

This is an exegetical study of Deuteronomy with attention to argument, structure, critical problems, theological issues, and applications for the contemporary church.

"I learned from the 'Contextualization' class sharing Christ is not about me, but about my audience, and how to share the gospel in a way they could understand."

David Song (EA), campus worker

"I was able to use everything I studied at EAST to my ministry among youth at church—and the principles worked."

Darren Kuek (SING), church worker

"I will never forget my professor's words in 'Biblical Interpretation' - that I must pray, study hard, and teach God's Word accurately and faithfully."

Jang Sei Ho (KOR), Korea Campus Crusade worker

PCM 512 Family Counselling

(2 credits)

Dr Rod Santos

May 14–18

9.00 AM–

1.00 PM

This course looks into issues of discord in the family, presents the principles of intervention, and imparts basic counseling skills. It also fortifies biblical teachings on the matter and discusses pertinent cases like marital conflict, infertility, children of divorcees, adolescence issues, domestic abuse, and aging.

Closing Date for Summer Class Registration: 10 May 2012
